

2011 Build Ohio

Marjorie P. Lee Retirement Community Wellness Center Addition

We are proud to announce that
RJ Beischel Building Company has been selected as a winners of the prestigious 2011 Build Ohio Award.

RJ Beischel Building Company was honored in the New Construction Under $7 Million category for the Marjorie P. Lee Wellness Center Addition, which was completed for Episcopal Retirement Homes.

RJ Beischel received its bronze and green marble Build Ohio award during the 20th annual Build Ohio Celebration on November 18, 2011 in Columbus, Ohio at the annual Associated General Contractors of Ohio meeting.

AGC hosts Build Ohio annually to celebrate the commercial construction industry and recognize contractors for excellence in construction. A panel of retired construction professionals selected the Build Ohio winners based on the following criteria: Excellence in client service, meeting the challenge of a difficult job, excellence in project management and innovations in construction techniques and materials.

Marjorie P. Lee Retirement Community

Wellness Center Addition

Cincinnati, OH

Construction Cost : $6.9 million

Architect: SFCS Architecture

