

GSH Cancer Institute

The Cancer Institute project transformed an existing Dialysis suite into a state of the art cancer treatment facility. The space was designed around four unique infusion carousels which provided the patients a private experience in a open setting. The project required extreme precision and coordination of all contractors to fit within the tight tolerances of the carousel installation.

PROJECT

Good Samaritan Hospital Cancer Institute

CONSTRUCTION COST

$1.6 million

ARCHITECT

PFB Architects

5655 Center Hill Ave.
PO Box 32067
Cincinnati, OH 45232
513-242-4090
www.beischel.com

